The Marian Gertner Institute for Medical Nanosystems

Call for Excellence Student Travel Awards (2025)

The Marian Gertner Institute fosters excellence in research in the field of Medical Nanosystems to promote health and improve quality of life. The center's goal is to serve as a catalyst for translating research and development into novel devices, technologies, diagnostics, and treatments with the potential to advance interdisciplinary innovations in nanomedicine.

The center will award travel grants in the amount of $500 to partially cover the cost of active participation (oral or poster presentation) in an international conference or workshop in relevant fields that align with the Institute's goals, held between September 1st, 2025, to August 31st, 2026, for which the applicant has received an acceptance notice.

Eligibility

- Students enrolled in an M.Sc. or Ph.D. program at Tel Aviv University who will not complete their studies before October 2026.
- Research work related to Medical Nanosystems.

Regulations

- The awardee will acknowledge "The Marian Gertner Institute for Medical Nanosystems" and/or add the institute logo (found on the website <https://en-med.tau.ac.il/gertner>) to the presentation or poster.

Application

Applicants should send one PDF file consisting of:

- Application form (attached to this call on the following pages)
- CV (2 pages maximum)
- Confirmation for acceptance to the meeting and confirmation for oral or poster presentation
- The abstract of the oral or poster presentation

The name of the file should be: Last name_MarianGertnerApplication

- A reference letter from the PI of the graduate student should be sent separately (1 page max).

The name of the file should be: Last name_Letter

Please send the applications to lihiA@tauex.tau.ac.il by September 2nd, 2025.
