

Healthy Longevity Research Center
Tel Aviv University

THE INTRICATE INTERPLAY BETWEEN SENSES AND AGING

Thursday March 2 2023 | 10:30-15:00
The Steinhardt Museum of Natural History

Introductory words

Prof. Milette Shamir, Vice President, International

Prof. Uri Ashery, Head, Healthy Longevity Research Center

SESSION 1

Frank Lin, Johns Hopkins University
Hearing Loss, Aging, and Public Health
– From Epidemiology to Public Policy in the United States

Liat Kishon-Rabin, Tel Aviv University
The Challenges of Listening in Noise in Older Adults: It's Not All Bad

Ruth Ashery-Padan, Tel Aviv University
Identification of Mechanisms of Tissue
Differentiation Expose New Genetic Risk
Factors for Age-Related Blindness

SESSION 2

Karen Avraham, Tel Aviv University
Genes and Hearing - Implications for Aging

David Sprinzak, Tel Aviv University
Coordination of Differentiation and Cell Mechanics During the Development and Regeneration of Inner Ear Hair Cells

Jaime Garcia-Anoveros, Northwestern University
How the Cochlea Generates Inner vs
Outer Hair Cells

Gathering and coffee starting from 10:00 Includes light lunch

REGISTER HERE >>

Organizers: Uri Ashery, Alana Sisam